Klasko Immigration Law Partners to Host 15th Annual Spring Seminar

Klasko Immigration Law Partners, LLP, home to the leading employment-based immigration lawyers in the United States, is pleased to host its 15th annual Spring Seminar on Tuesday, April 16, 2019, at the Union League of Philadelphia. Professionals working in the field of employment-based immigration are warmly invited to attend.

This year's seminar is entitled "2019 Climate Change: Navigating a Difficult Immigration Environment" and will feature the high-caliber attorneys of Klasko Immigration Law Partners as speakers leading lively and engaging panels about the challenges and strategies in today's immigration environment

Following an optional session covering the fundamentals of immigration, more in-depth panels will include the latest information and strategies to deal with unprecedented Requests for Evidence (RFE) and Notices of Intent to Deny (NOIDs), developments regarding the EB-1 visa, changes in immigration quotas, litigation of denied petitions, and much more.

Professionals serving as corporate and university counsel, hospital immigration coordinators, human resources representatives, international relocation specialists, or international chamber of commerce members are sure to find the event captivating. Sessions will explore not only changes and challenges in immigration in 2019 but will also suggest solutions and strategies.

The 2019 Klasko Spring Seminar is also accredited by the Society for Human Resource Management and is valid for 2.5 PDCs for the SHRM-CP® or SHRM-SCP®.
