Anu Nair Will Be Recognized by Her Alma Mater for Overcoming Challenges in the Face of Adversity

PHILADELPHIA, PA. November 1, 2019: Firm partner, Anu Nair, will be honored at Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law's tenth annual BALLSA alumni dinner. This year's event will celebrate diversity and honor those who have pushed forward by excelling in the face of adversity. Her fellow nominees are Rafael Ignacio Castellanos (Class of '86) and David S. Huntley (Class of '90). While earning her law degree at Cardozo School of Law, she served as submissions editor of the Cardozo Journal of Law and Gender.

Anu Nair is the EB-5 Investor Team's managing partner at Klasko Immigration Law Partners LLP. She has filed petitions for thousands of immigrants looking to secure their green cards and is relied on by other immigration law firms to review their EB-5 cases and ensure they adhere to USCIS' guidelines. Anu is sought after to respond to complex Notices of Intent to Deny and file appeals for denials received by other firms.

Anu also manages the firm's EB-1 and EB-2 practice. With her strong science background, Anu is uniquely positioned to assist doctors, researchers, and other highly skilled professionals secure their green cards through EB-1A (Aliens of Extraordinary Ability), EB-1B (Outstanding Researchers), and EB-2 National Interest Waiver petitions.

An immigrant herself, Anu is familiar with the challenges green card hopefuls face and the difficulties of the immigration process itself. She is cognizant that her ability to resolve immigration issues for her clients impacts not only their lives but that of their family and future generations.

The BALLSA tenth annual alumni dinner will be taking place on Thursday, November 14th at Cardozo School of Law, beginning at 6:00 p.m.
