H. Ronald Klasko Recognized as a Top 25 Global Migration Attorney

Klasko Immigration Law Partners, LLP is pleased to announce Ron Klasko has received recognition in the Top 25 Uglobal Immigration Magazine 2020. Each year, the magazine recognizes the industry's leading and most influential immigration attorneys and service providers. To be eligible for this recognition, the distinguished attorneys must be primarily active in the investment migration space, are experienced in filing a large volume of applicants, or they are distinguished immigration attorneys. They are then selected by a board of advisors along with editorial input, then evaluated on their industry experience, track record, and reputation.

Ron Klasko, recognized on the Top 25 Global Migration Attorneys, is known as one of the world's leading immigration lawyers representing international clients seeking to invest and live in the United States. He leads his firm's 25-member Investor Team and has represented thousands of investors, over 50 regional centers, and numerous U.S. developers in the EB-5 program. Ron was the lead attorney on the Matters of Walsh and Pollard case, the key precedent for E-2 visas. He is an Advisory Board Member for the Investment Migration Council, and his firm is the North American Regional Office. He currently chairs AILA's Administrative Litigation Task Force, leading the efforts to challenging federal immigration policies, visa denials, and unreasonable delays.

The attorneys of Klasko Immigration Law Partners, LLP have national reputations for cutting-edge immigration law practice. To schedule a consultation with a KILP lawyer, please visit the firm's website.
