Angela Devine-Ginion Promoted to Executive Director of Klasko Immigration Law Partners

Klasko Immigration Law Partners, LLP is pleased to announce Angela Devine-Ginion has been promoted to Executive Director of Klasko Immigration Law Partners.

Angela is honored to step into the role of Executive Director and is eager to continue driving the firm's growth and success. Reflecting on her journey with Klasko Immigration so far, she shared her enthusiasm, "I am incredibly excited about this new chapter in my career. I want to thank the partners for their unwavering support and for guiding me on this path. Over the past ten years, I have grown alongside the firm, and it has been an incredible journey. I look forward to contributing in my new role as Executive Director at the firm while continuing to further our mission of creating a workplace culture where employees feel valued, supported, and empowered to thrive."

In 2014, Angela joined the firm as its first Human Resources Manager and was promoted to Manager of Human Resources and Administration in 2021. She can be credited with the firm's significant achievements in being named a "Best Place to Work" by the Philadelphia Business Journal for four consecutive years and recently being named one of the "Best Companies to Work For" nationally in the law firm category by U.S. News & World Report. She has demonstrated a steadfast commitment to listening to the staff and enhancing the firm's benefits over the years. Her efforts have led to the introduction of staff recognition programs, such as the monthly Ronny Award and the annual Lisa Felix and Rich Rulon Awards. She has also championed the firm's dedication to fostering a genuine work-life balance by expanding traditional PTO to include Mental Health Days, paid parental and bereavement leaves, hybrid/remote work options, summer Fridays, and flexible work hours. Additionally, she has implemented initiatives to support professional growth and career advancement, such as the peer mentorship program and the formalization of progression opportunities.

Managing Partner, William (Bill) Stock, also expressed his enthusiasm, "Angela has been an incredible asset to the firm's growth since she joined us ten years ago. Her ability to keep her finger on the pulse of staff needs and to take proactive steps to sustain the firm as a leader in a balanced and thriving workplace culture. This is an innate skill that will undoubtedly serve her and the firm in her new role as Executive Director. I look forward to seeing what she will accomplish in the years to come."

In her new role as Executive Director, Angela will oversee the administration and operations of the firm, which has grown to over 110 employees in nearly 20 states. She will continue to lead the firm's Social Committee, a pivotal group of staff members dedicated to fostering a culture of collaboration and maintaining the high morale for which the firm is renowned. Alongside the partners and management teams, Angela will be responsible for the smooth operations of the finance, marketing, and technology departments, while continuing to oversee the administrative and human resource teams.
